COMMUNICATION ALUMNI SPEAKERS & MENTORS

MARCO ALFANDARY, Class of 2010       Entertainment Industry Panel; Speed Mentor

Marco is an associate producer for ESPN, working in both studio and remote production. He is responsible for producing content across multiple platforms for a variety of shows including SportsCenter, Baseball Tonight and Monday Night Countdown. When he is not working on studio shows based out of ESPN headquarters in Connecticut, he travels around the country to produce content surrounding events televised on ESPN. While at UCSB, Marco volunteered at KCSB—working as the play-by-play voice for UCSB basketball and soccer. He graduated with a B.A. in Communication and a minor in Italian.

LAUREN ALVEY, Class of 2012       Public Relations & Marketing Panel; Speed Mentor

Lauren Alvey has just recently become the Marketing Assistant for Intercare Insurance Solutions, a forward-thinking, full-service insurance brokerage firm. Previously, she was the Marketing Assistant for Plural Publishing, a specialized medical textbook publishing company. She managed all social media outlets, promotional material design and email campaigns. In her new role at Intercare Lauren works with the Marketing Department to coordinate all Sales and Marketing events from managing event logistics to tracking all CRM activities. She also coordinates all email marketing campaigns, designs internal and promotional materials and assists with the maintenance of various websites.

ELLEN ARAUJO, Class of 2013       First Few Years Panel; Speed Mentor

Ellen is a Campus Manager at Course Hero, Inc. The main focus of her role is to hire, train, and manage interns for Course Hero's remote internship program at campuses across North America and Canada. Ellen works with interns to develop marketing campaigns to promote Course Hero and their philanthropic initiative on their respective campuses. She is also in charge of writing monthly newsletters and designing educational materials for the entire internship program. Ellen began working with Course Hero directly after leaving UCSB last Spring. While at UCSB, Ellen was Vice-President of the Communication Association, a Marketing Intern for the Carsey-Wolf Center, and held various positions within Campus Residential Life.

EMILY BERG, Class of 2013       Entertainment Industry Panel; Speed Mentor

Emily is the Special Events and Talent Relations Assistant at CBS Television Network. She and the SVP of the department make up the entire Special Events/Talent Relations team. The two oversee all West Coast special events including the planning and execution of the Network’s press tour parties, series wrap events, talent relations and philanthropy for CBS. While at UCSB, Emily worked on the Associated Students Program Board, was a member of Alpha Phi, and interned with Clear Channel Communications, the House of Blues, NBCUniversal, and CBS Television Studios.

AMBER BROWN, Class of 2009       Speed Mentor

After graduating, Amber moved back to her hometown of Chicago and took the first job she could get as a sales rep for Xerox (yes, they still make copiers). Although a fantastic experience, she knew sales was not for her, and she moved back to Santa Barbara and applied to every business in town. Citrix gave her the opportunity to work on their Product Design team as a Customer Research Intern, and she was then offered a full-time position at Citrix as a Customer Researcher. After 3 years at Citrix, Amber was offered a job at Sonos, the up and coming wireless speaker company. She currently works at Sonos as a Customer Researcher and loves learning about how people enjoy music in their homes.
CODY CORONA, Class of 2010

Cody is a Marketing Coordinator at Rockstar Games, a leading developer, publisher and marketer of interactive entertainment for consumers around the globe. Cody and his team manage the publication of games for consoles, PC’s and mobile devices, keeping a specific eye toward advertising, marketing, PR, branding, digital, out-of-home, retail, inventory, experiential events, and more. Cody and his team recently launched Grand Theft Auto V, which quickly became the most successful release of an entertainment product in history. Before joining Rockstar Games, Cody worked at advertising agencies in Portland and New York City, working on brands like Old Spice and Denny’s. While at UCSB, Cody minored in Professional Writing, served as Student Marketing Coordinator for the UCSB Recreational Sports Department, and was an Account Supervisor for SB Media Group.

WENDY DAY-BROWN, Class of 1985

Wendy Day-Brown is managing partner at db Communications. Some of her clients include: UC Irvine, Priority Living, urDigital Media, New Hope Presbyterian Church. Since starting her career at the humanitarian relief organization, World Vision, she has been involved with event production and fundraising. She is an experienced public relations and events professional with expertise in strategic marketing while increasing income and community awareness for her clients.

NICK DUGGAN, Class of 2000

Nick has more than 13 years of experience as a marketing, communications, and employee engagement professional. As Senior Manager of Internal Communications, Nick sits on the leadership team for the SaaS Division of Citrix, running employee and leadership communication initiatives across the 2,000-employee division. He serves as a strategic advisor to company leaders and helps ensure that employees worldwide are informed, engaged, and have a clear understanding of the company’s vision and strategy and current events. Nick previously held a variety of marketing roles in the healthcare industry and worked for several years as a self-employed life & business coach for holistic small business owners. While at UCSB, Nick held leadership roles in Orientation Programs, First-Year Initiatives and various LGBT organizations, and helped launch the very first UCSB New Student Convocation.

ROCHELLE FARNUM, Class of 2012

Rochelle currently brings new ideas into the world at 72andSunny. Creating with some of the best and brightest spirits in the industry, Rochelle works in brand management, partnering with her dream client, ESPN. She serves as a day-to-day quarterback on ESPN's NFL, College GameDay, and WatchESPN accounts, and recently finished an Olympics campaign for Samsung. While at UCSB, she dedicated herself to building upon the vision of GauchosPlay and transformed the entire marketing leg of UCSB Recreational Sports. In addition, she played 8-lady for UCSB Rugby, held three internships, and landed a job with Team One on the Lexus business all before graduating in just three years.

ANGELA GREENE, Class of 2011

Angela is an Administrative Assistant at Google. This role involves event planning, space planning, calendaring, budgeting, booking travel, scheduling facilities and equipment, and much more. Administrative Assistants at Google are the glue that keeps the team together. We are pivotal to our team’s ability to do cool things that matter in the world as we act as the liaison between other groups and executives both internally and externally.
ALLYSON GUATNO, Class of 2011
Public Relations & Marketing Panel; Speed Mentor

Ally is a coordinator for the Talent Partnerships Department at Maker Studios, a next-generation media and technology company and the world’s largest provider of online video content for Millennials. In this position she works closely with Maker talent in assisting and managing day to day tasks such as talent bookings across Maker owned and operated verticals, collabs with in-network and out-of-network talent, and branded integrations in an effort to help grow each talent’s digital presence on multiple platforms such as YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, etc. Before Maker, she gained experience in the fashion PR and entertainment agency world. While at UCSB, Ally was a member of Alpha Delta Pi, an EAP peer advisor, and studied abroad in Madrid, Spain.

SCOTT HENNESSEE, Class of 1999
Speed Mentor

Scott is the new evening news anchor for KCOY and KKFX where he anchors the 5, 6, 10, and 11 p.m. news. Scott’s career began as a Sportscaster in Santa Barbara where he graduated from UCSB. A former anchor for CBS Local 2 and KDFX Fox 11 and Sports Director for CBS Local 2, Scott was also a general assignment reporter. He hosted the nightly magazine show, "Eye on the Desert," for which he was nominated for two Emmy Awards. First Few Years Panel; Speed Mentor

Eleen is a Communication Specialist at QSIDental, a dental software company. In this position, Eleen manages and produces the content, design and delivery of both internal and external communication. This includes customer and employee monthly newsletters, email marketing, web content, internal campaigns and marketing collateral. She previously held the position as Marketing and Communication Specialist at St. Joseph Health, creating system-wide communications for its 2,400 employees. Aside from enjoying the beautiful beaches and outdoor activities at UC Santa Barbara, Eleen interned as a KCSB-FM Radio news reporter, KCSB Media Center video producer and worked as a Co-Public Relations Coordinator for Associated Students Community Affairs Board (CAB).

BETHANY INNOCENTI, Class of 2002
Speed Mentor

Bethany Innocenti is the current Lead Regional Director of Development for UC Santa Barbara. Bethany began her fundraising career in UCSB Donor Relations immediately after graduating from UC Santa Barbara in 2002. In 2005, she took advantage of a challenging opportunity to oversee the Marketing, Public Relations, Events, and Alumni Department at Brooks Institute. She held that position for five years before moving into Brooks’ corporate office where she successfully managed the Alumni Department at 12 different schools across the United States. In 2010, Bethany came home to UCSB in a regional leadership role where she is currently a major gift fundraiser for the university.

LAUREN KIDO, Class of 2011
Public Relations & Marketing Panel; Speed Mentor

Lauren Kido is an Account Executive at Highwire Public Relations in San Francisco. She supports a variety of technology clients in the consumer and B2B sectors and has worked with a variety of fast-rising startups such as Prezi, Blue Goji, Piper and CorvisaCloud during her time at the agency. Lauren supports media relations, storyline development, event coordination, social media and content development across her teams and is actively involved in building out Highwire’s internship program. Prior to Highwire, Lauren supported public relations at an educational gaming startup, MindSnacks, and began her PR career at North of Nine Communications. While at UCSB, Lauren was a research assistant with Dr. Putnam and also spent a semester in Washington, D.C. through the UCDC program.
LAURA LEINDECKER, Class of 1981

Speed Mentor

Laura created her independent public relations firm, LLLeindecker & Associates, in 2013 after thirty years of working in the field of marketing and promotions. Upon graduating from UCSB, Laura first worked in New York City for a commercial land developer as a project coordinator on a commercial high rise development. She then went on to work for a financial publisher, at such venues as the IMF and World Bank Summits. Prior to creating LLLeindecker & Associates Laura worked as Promotions for the Banning Chamber of Commerce in Riverside County and recruited new and lapsed memberships for over 120 businesses, such as Wells Fargo, Chase, Diversified Pacific, and others. Laura has been a community leader on the 2012 Riverside County Workforce Investment Board and the 2012 Mt. San Jacinto College Education Summit. Laura's philosophy: there is always time to take action, and give back.

DON LUBACH, Class of 1986

Speed Mentor

Don Lubach is UCSB’s “First-Year Dean.” As the Assistant Dean of Students and the Director of the First-Year and Graduate Initiatives, Don helps new undergraduates and graduates make the transition to research university life. He is also a member of the Student Affairs Leadership team and a Lecturer with the Gevirtz Graduate School of Education.

JAY MATHESON, Class of 1996

Speed Mentor

Jay is a business development executive at Apple Inc. where he creates and delivers events that educate customers with regard to Apple technology and provide solutions for the greater academic community. Jay works closely with the UC and California Community College system and often partners with campus leadership to speak on the topics of personal branding in a digital world and the challenges of the 21st century workforce and economy. Prior to joining Apple, Jay worked with some of the top Hollywood movie studios to create viral marketing campaigns for new releases.

REGINA SARNICOLA, Class of 2011

First Few Years Panel; Speed Mentor

Regina is an Account Executive at Yelp. She joined Yelp in 2012 after taking a year off to travel and work part time. As an AE, she reaches out to local businesses to educate them on the power of Yelp and online advertising. One of the more veteran AEs, she also serves as a mentor to incoming Yelpers. She relishes in the fact that she shares elevator rides with the company CEO and her biggest satisfaction in her career is watching these local businesses flourish in their communities and knowing she plays a part into that every day. Regina was a transfer student to UCSB, and while at UCSB she served as the Opinion Editor for the school paper, The Bottom Line.

HILLARY SCOTT, Class of 2013

Speed Mentor

Hillary is a Hospitality Coordinator for Prospect Hotels’ Santa Barbara Autocamp project. She has taken over management for this property, as well as assisted the team in preparations for new locations for the Autocamp brand, including heading up procurement of vintage Airstream shells. Prior to Prospect, Hillary spent six years in the hospitality industry and was recognized for her dedication to exceptional customer service. During this time, she also became interested in the real estate development and brokerage business and worked at Village Properties in Santa Barbara. She is currently working towards obtaining her California Real Estate Salesperson License. In the past year, Hillary has also become fascinated with viticulture and plans to continue her education in wine and wine making.
DAISY STELZER, Class of 2013

Daisy began interning with Vita Explorer, an online travel start-up company, while completing her Senior year at UCSB. After graduating, she began full-time at Vita Explorer as an Executive Assistant and Project Manager allowing her to stay in beautiful SB! Working in the start-up world of Santa Barbara has given her experience in many different areas, such as: project managing three programmers, finding/casting hosts for a travel show, managing interns, researching and developing international destinations, creating wire frames, designing web pages, user experience research, reaching out to local businesses to create mutually beneficial partnerships, and assisting in opening the start-up's only retail presence "Vita Travel Store" from the ground up. The travel site and store are both launching this year.

CHRISTIAN VUONG, Class of 2006

Christian recently graduated from UCLA Anderson, where he earned his MBA, and he currently helps lead online marketing initiatives for Hewlett-Packard. But when he first graduated from UCSB, he had no job lined up, moved back home to L.A., and started surfing Craigslist -- sound familiar? He landed a marketing internship, and then worked for Wpromote, an online marketing agency. He worked his way up to Director of SEO and collaborated with brands such as Toyota and TOMS Shoes to help scale their e-commerce initiatives. With a passion for start-ups, Christian spearheaded a YouTube Channel that has gained 1M+ views to date and co-founded YourSash.com, which is today one of the leading online vendors for custom graduation sashes and stoles. While at UCSB, Christian was president of his fraternity, Zeta Phi Rho, and an active member of the Vietnamese Student Association (VSA).

HEATHER WILBURN, Class of 1998

Heather is a Strategic Partner Manager on the Channel Sales team at Google. She joined Google in 2002 as one of the founding members of the AdWords online advertising program, focusing primarily on developing advanced online strategies for small to medium businesses. Today, she manages high profile partnerships for increased adoption of Google advertising solutions, with an emphasis on partners who specialize in managing franchise brands. Heather co-founded and co-produced the first Franchise Summit at Google, in partnership with the IFA (International Franchise Association). Through building market awareness of Google’s local digital marketing solutions, the half-day Franchise Summit empowers franchisers to drive more traffic to their stores while cultivating enhanced expertise of managed partners.

SARA WILLIAMS, Class of 2013

Sara is an Instructional Program Assistant in the South Hall Administrative Support Center at UCSB. She works primarily with the English and Philosophy departments and the English for Multilingual Students Program. In addition to providing general assistance to faculty and graduate students, Sara is responsible for the coordination of teaching evaluations, textbook orders, office hours listings, and Disabled Students Program accommodations. During her time as a student, she was a Campus Tour Guide, President of the Gaucho Tour Association, and an Orientation Leader.

RYAN WILSON, Class of 2008

Ryan Wilson spent the first few years after graduation working for an advertising agency, buying national broadcast television advertisements across major US networks. He has since received his MBA from Pepperdine University and held senior level positions at various early-stage B2B companies across California. His focus is on entrepreneurial marketing, building marketing departments from the ground up by focusing on customer segmentation, and interfacing with the product development teams. Currently, he is the Director of Marketing for CollisionSync where he handles marketing strategy and execution for its three main products centered in the industrial supply and fulfillment space.
